EMPIRE VS SOUL

MATCHUP PREVIEW

Coming off a tough loss to visiting Baltimore, the Albany Empire matchup against the Philadelphia Soul at home on Saturday, June 16 at 6:00 p.m. at the Times Union Center. The Empire will look to win their sixth game in seven contests and take a lead in the season series against the Soul. The game will be broadcast live on CBS Sports Network and on Alt 105.7 fm.

The first matchup to look out for is between the Empire secondary versus the “Darius duo” of Darius Prince and Darius Reynolds. Despite the Soul using three different quarterbacks on the season, Prince and Reynolds continue to thrive regardless of who is throwing them the ball. On the season, Prince leads the league in receiving yards with 765 and his 15 receiving touchdowns ties for second with Malachi Jones. Reynolds has been consistent as well, tallying 35 catches for 509 yards and nine receiving touchdowns on the season. Coupling this duo with an experienced coaching staff makes Philadelphia a threat to score on every single play.

The next matchup to lookout for is between the Empire defensive line and Philadelphia’s rushing attack. The Soul run the football considerably more than any other team in the league and have compiled 11 touchdowns on the ground. Though it may not be traditional being a pass-heavy sport, Philadelphia keeps opposing defenses on their toes just with the threat of a running play. Led by fullback Adrian Ferns, who on 33 attempts has 122 yards and four touchdowns, the Soul will attempt the run from anywhere on the field. It’s not just the fullback who is a threat to carry the ball for the Soul as the quarterback position has produced four rushing touchdowns this season. Newly acquired quarterback Shane Austin poses as a dual threat and is perfectly content to sneak out of the pocket and run for yards if he sees daylight. Albany has seen Austin already this season when he was at the helm of the Washington Valor back in Week 7. Though Austin only carried the ball three times in the game, don’t be surprised to see the speedy quarterback pick up some key yards for Philadelphia on the ground in this one.

The final matchup that could ultimately determine the outcome of this game will be which team wins in the third quarter. On the season, the Empire have come out of halftime on fire and have been able to pull away from opponents. This year Albany has limited opposing teams to a minimal 49 points in the third quarter as the Empire boast a +54-point differential. On the contrary, Philadelphia struggles in the third quarter with a -19-point differential on the season. If this game is close going into halftime, the third quarter could be the turning point in the game as Albany has the ability to explode and potentially put Philadelphia away before the fourth quarter even begins.

THE IFS:

If the Empire defeats the Soul it would...

- * Improve Albany’s record to 6-3, including wins in six of the past seven games
- * Put Albany in a chance for first place (if Baltimore loses)
- * Give Albany the advantage in the season series against Philadelphia (currently tied 1-1)

PHILADELPHIA TIES

- * Empire Head Coach, Rob Keefe, won a championship playing with the Philadelphia Soul in 2008
- * Pass Rush Coordinator, Beau Bell, played the last three seasons with the Philadelphia Soul, winning two ArenaBowls and receiving All-Arena Honors and Defensive Player of the Year
- * The Empire have three players on the 24-man roster that have played on the Philadelphia Soul in years past

OPPOSING PLAYERS TO WATCH

Look out for Soul quarterback Shane Austin. The former Valor QB is the third different starter for Philadelphia this season, averaging 217 yards per game and has thrown for 653 yards in his three games played this season for both Washington and Philadelphia. The focus will be on Austin to get more comfortable with the Soul’s offensive scheme as he strives to have a breakout game.

On the defensive side of the ball, defensive back James Romain has been a weapon all season for the Soul. Romain has played in all eight games this season for Philadelphia and has tallied 40 tackles, along with being ranked second in the league with three interceptions.

THE SERIES

This will be the third meeting between the Empire and the Soul.

Week 1: Albany 35 – Philadelphia 56

Week 6: Albany 41- Philadelphia 36

WHAT’S AHEAD

After this weekend’s matchup against the Soul, the Empire go on the road to square off against the Baltimore Brigade. The game on Saturday, 6/23 will be at 7:30 p.m. Tune into CBS Sports Network or listen to Alt 105.7 for full coverage!

THE COACHES

ALBANY EMPIRE HEAD COACH ROB KEEFE

Keefe enters his ninth season as a coach in the AFL. At the age of 29 he became the youngest head coach in AFL history to win an Arena Football League Championship, when he led the Spokane Shock to an ArenaBowl victory in their first year in the AFL. He is the only person in Arena Football history to win an Arena Cup (AF2) and ArenaBowl (AFL) title as both a player and a coach.

As a player, Keefe was a defensive back. During his playing days, he set team records for the Spokane Shock as their all time leader in tackles and interceptions. Making the transition from AF2 to AFL, Keefe joined the Philadelphia Soul, where he won a championship in 2008.

Keefe's first season as a head coach, the Spokane Shock boasted the league's top-ranked defense, allowing a mere 37.6 points per game. The shock won an ArenaCup in that same season.

Coming into the 2018 season, Keefe posted a career 61-30 record as a head coach in the AFL (#1). Most recently, he led the Orlando Predators as head coach and vice president of football operations from 2014-2016. In his stint in Orlando, Rob won a division championship in each of his three years leading the team.

Coach Dolezel has developed 26 All-Arena players during his tenure in Philadelphia and has earned Coach of the Year Honors in consecutive seasons during 2015-16.

Dolezel's coaching career began in 2009 with the af2's Florida Firecats as the team's Offensive Coordinator. After receiving his first head coaching job in the AFL during 2011 with the Dallas Vigilantes, Dolezel led the team to the playoffs in his rookie season as Head Coach with an 11-7 regular season record. Dolezel joined the Soul in 2012 as the Offensive Coordinator in which the team set a record for most points scored in a game by an away team in a 92-42 victory over the Georgia Force.

Dolezel's 13-year playing career was honored in 2012 with an induction into the AFL Hall of Fame. Leading the Grand Rapids Rampage to an ArenaBowl XV title during his time with the time between 2001-03, Dolezel finds himself ranked second all-time in the AFL in touchdown passes (931) and third all-time in passing yards (44,564).

EMPIRE PLAYMAKERS

Tommy Grady

Tommy Grady continued to be the Empire's most dangerous offensive weapon last Saturday as he completed 19 passes for 275 yards and 7 touchdowns. Grady leads the league in TD passes (49).

Joe Hills

Hills hauled in 4 touchdowns a week ago in the loss to Baltimore. For his career, he has caught 250 touchdowns – a mark only 10 other WRs have reached. Hills has scored a receiving touchdown in 88 consecutive games.

Malachi Jones

Ranked second in the league in receiving yards with 713, Malachi Jones continued his rookie of the year campaign last Saturday with 7 receptions for 93 yards and 2 touchdown catches.

Brandon Stephens

Earning the honor of Defensive Player of the Game last Saturday, Brandon Stephens led the way with 11.5 total tackles., adding to his season total of 22.5.

Joe Sykes

Defensive end Joe Sykes had 1.5 tackles and 0.5 sacks last Saturday. Sykes leads the league in sacks with 7.0 and is tied for the all-time career lead in sacks with 60.5.

Terence Moore

Terence Moore had another pivotal performance last Saturday with 4.5 total tackles and an interception. Moore leads the league in interceptions with 4 and is ranked second in tackles with 44.5.

EMPIRE LEADERS

WHAT'S AT STAKE: The Albany Empire look to rebound from their first loss in five weeks with a home matchup against the visiting Philadelphia Soul. Since a week 1 loss to Philadelphia, the Empire have been dominant with a 5-2 record, which includes snapping the Soul's 20-game home winning streak during week 6.

UNDER CENTER: QB Tommy Grady is proving to be one of the most dangerous offensive weapons in the AFL. Grady leads the league in touchdown passes (49), passing yards (1928), and yards per game for QBs who have played in at least three games (241.0). During the Empire's past two home games, Grady has completed 38 passes for 523 yards and 15 touchdowns.

GOOD LUCK DBs: WR Joe Hills, once again, found himself in the end zone several times in last Saturday's 59-56 loss to the Brigade. Hills put on yet another stellar performance with 9 catches for 132 yards and 4 touchdowns. Hills' fourth touchdown of the game was number 250 of his career, making him one of only 11 players in league history to achieve this milestone. On the season, Hills leads the league in TD receptions with 20 and has played in 88 consecutive games with receiving a TD pass- a streak that is still active.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR?: WR Malachi Jones has been the other half of the Empire's dynamic duo all year. Ranked second in the AFL in receiving yards with 713, Jones was a threat to Baltimore's defense last Saturday with 7 receptions for 93 yards and 2 touchdowns. Jones has 15 receiving touchdowns and 4 rushing touchdowns on the season, putting him second in the league in overall touchdowns scored. This young man has all the makings of a rookie of the year and won't slow down anytime soon.

THE G.O.A.T.: DE Joe Sykes added another 1.5 tackles to his season total in last week's defeat to the Brigade. His assisted sack moved him up into a tie with Arena League great Sam Hernandez for most sacks all-time at 60.5. Don't expect Sykes to settle as this man looks to blow that record out of the water. Look for Sykes to apply pressure off the edge and add onto his already stellar 2018 numbers. On the season, Sykes leads the league with 7 sacks and 4 forced fumbles. The 35 year-old vet shows no signs of slowing down as he continues to dominate opposing offensive lines.

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

Empire Fall Short to Brigade in Rematch

6/9/2018

The Albany Empire (5-3) was defeated by the Baltimore Brigade (6-2) 59-56 Saturday night at the Times Union Center in Albany, NY in front of a crowd of 8,767. Brigade quarterback Randy Hippeard threw for 270 yards and eight touchdowns earning himself the game MVP award. Brigade receiver Brandon Thompkins had 17 receptions for 159 yards and three receiving touchdowns on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. Empire defensive back Brandon Stephens was named Defensive Player of the Game leading both teams with 11.5 total tackles

Albany received the game's opening kickoff and were setup on their own 11-yard line after a nice return by Larry Beavers. Grady went right to work finding the league's leader in receiving yards Malachi Jones on a short pass to the side for a 9-yard pick up. On the next play, Grady went right back to Jones and picked up 21 yards as the Empire were quickly in the opposing red zone. One play later, Grady found Jones once again from 10-yards out as the Albany took the early 7-0 lead. After a high kick off the net, Baltimore went to work on their own nine-yard line for their first possession of the game. Albany began their ensuing possession on their own five-yard line after a touchback on the kickoff. After a short completion to Joe Hills, the Empire were helped by a pass interference on fourth down to extend the drive. The drive was stalled by an interception by defensive back James Romaine on a pass intended for Hills in the end zone. Three plays into the Soul drive, Raudabaugh was hit hard by a swarm of Empire defensive linemen and was temporarily knocked out of the game, leaving backup quarterback Greg McGhee to handle the next play. After giving up a sack to Empire lineman Nick Seither, Raudabaugh returned to the game. The Soul failed to convert on fourth down, turning the ball back over to Albany. At the end of the first quarter, Philadelphia led the defensive battle 7-0.

With the first play of the second quarter, the Empire were setback by an intentional grounding penalty on third down and were unable to convert on a long fourth down to give the ball back over to the Soul. Philadelphia worked quickly as they crossed into Empire territory in just two plays. Unable to convert another first down, the Soul attempted a long 46 field goal. Two plays later, Grady connected with Malachi Jones for a 30-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7-7.

The Soul would take advantage of the short field by taking back the lead on a 27-yard field goal. With little time on the clock, the Empire couldn't find a way to score, with the first half ending 16-14 in favor of the Soul.

Albany would begin their second possession of the second half on their own 20-yard line after the Soul kickoff went out of bounds outside of the nets. Two plays later, Grady connected with Jordan Williams for a 25-yard touchdown; the first touchdown reception of Williams' young AFL career. The first play of the Soul's next possession ended with a fumble by fullback Adrian Ferns, giving the ball back to the Empire inside of the Soul 5-yard line. Defensive end Joe Sykes forced the fumble giving him a league leading four forced fumbles on the season. The Empire capitalized on the Soul turnover with a one-yard touchdown run by Malachi Jones to further the Albany lead. At the end of the third quarter, the Empire led 35-23.

The Empire wasted no time responding, tossing a 48-yard touchdown to receiver, Malachi Jones.

On a crucial driving being down by only two touchdowns midway through the fourth quarter, the Empire turned the ball over on downs on the opposing three-yard line. Philadelphia milked a lot of clock and moved the ball down field for another score, increasing their cushion to 21.

The Empire were unable to convert on their next possession, giving the ball back to Philadelphia. The Soul maintained control until the final seconds ticked off the clock. The final score of the game was 56-35.
