7.28.18 // 7 P.M. // ROYAL FARMS ARENA // POSTSEASON GAME #3

The Baltimore Brigade and Washington Valor meet in ArenaBowl XXXI Saturday, July 28 at 7 p.m. at Royal Farms Arena in Baltimore, Md., marking the first ArenaBowl appearance for both franchises. Baltimore holds a 3-1 advantage in the regular season series, though Washington won the most recent – a 42-35 victory against the Brigade in both team's regular season finale.

BRIGADE PLAYER TO WATCH: QB Randy Hippeard – Hippeard, the 2017 AFL MVP, is playing in his second consecutive ArenaBowl. This postseason, Hippeard leads the league with a 70.2% completion rate and is tied for the league lead with 13 passing touchdowns. Hippeard threw for 18 touchdowns and just two interceptions in four regular season games against the Valor this season.

VALOR PLAYER TO WATCH: QB Arvell Nelson – In his two postseason games this season, Nelson has already tallied 11 passing touchdowns to go along with his league-leading four rushing touchdowns. Nelson played in just two regular season games against Baltimore this year, amassing 490 all-purpose yards and 10 total touchdowns (nine passing and one rushing).

MATCHUP TO WATCH: BAL DB Joe Powell vs. WAS WR Doug McNeil III – Powell is coming off one of his best games of the season last week against Philadelphia. The Defensive Player of the game tallied eight tackles (all solo) and five pass break-ups. After ranking second on the team in solo tackles this regular season, Powell leads the league in postseason solo tackles (13) through two games. Powell will be tasked with slowing down Valor wideout Doug McNeil III, who is tied for the team lead with four receiving touchdowns this postseason and has scored in all four games he has played in for the Valor this season.

VALOR NOTES AND QUOTES

AWARD WINNERS:

The AFL announced on July 18 that Valor quarterback Arvell Nelson and defensive back Fred Obi were named Offensive and Defensive Players of the Week, respectively, for their performances against the Albany Empire in Game 1 of Washington's postseason series. Nelson totaled eight touchdowns (six passing, two rushing) while Obi tallied 10 solo tackles and a pick.

BENJI MCDOWELL AFTER GAME 1 VS. ALBANY:

"We played very well. We left a lot of plays on the field – bar balls, catches, dropped balls. We just have to clean up those types of things. Our guys fought, we can't be mad at them...We have a chance to go back up [to Albany]...it is all about the points."

DUAL THREAT:

In his six games with the Valor, Nelson has made an impact both through the air and on the ground, leading the AFL in passing yards per game (251.5) and rushing yards per game (21.5) and is one of just two players in the league to average one rushing touchdown per game. Nelson has rushed for multiple touchdowns on two occasions (Week 9 @ PHI, Week 11 vs. PHI) and recorded season highs of seven carries and 43 rush yards against Albany in Week 12.

NELSON SHINES IN VALOR DEBUT:

Valor quarterback Arvell Nelson made his debut for Washington in Week 8 against the Philadelphia Soul, throwing for an AFL season-high 345 yards. Nelson threw a season-high seven touchdowns that night, including three to wideout Reggie Gray, whose eight receptions and 127 receiving yards also led the team.

GRAY NEARS NEXT MILESTONE:

Gray (840) sits just three receptions behind Siaha Burley (843) for 13th on the league's all-time receptions leaderboard. In Week 6, one week after becoming the 16th player in league history with 10K receiving yards, Gray became the 15th receiver to record 800 career receptions. In Week 10, Gray became the 12th player in AFL history with 250 receiving TDs.

OBI'S IMPACT:

Valor defensive back Fred Obi is one of just eight players to record multiple interceptions this season. Obi, who played in fewer games than any of those eight, ranks T-8 in the league in solo tackles (29). Obi was named AFL Defensive Player of the Week in Week 9 after tallying three total tackles, one pass break-up and two interceptions in Washington's win over Philadelphia.

POSTSEASON STREAKING:

Valor wideouts Reggie Gray and Rod Windsor (currently on IR) lead the AFL in consecutive postseason games with a receiving touchdown (min. five games played). Gray has hauled in a receiving touchdown in 11 consecutive postseason games compared to Windsor's 10. Albany's Joe Hills and Philadelphia's Shaun Kauleinamoku are tied for third on the list with eight such games.

MORE HISTORY FOR TT:

Valor wide receiver TT Toliver, a 15-year AFL veteran and career leader in receptions (1,258) and career receiving yards (16,488), needs just six receiving touchdowns to pass Chris Jackson for second on the career receiving touchdowns list. Toliver has caught six touchdowns this season, putting his career total at 320.

BENJI MCDOWELL AFTER A WEEK 13 WIN OVER BALTIMORE:

"It felt good to put a full game together. We fought, we fought, we fought. We gave them a chance – but it is what it is. The offense was huge for us. The defense was huge for us in the second half. We did exactly what we needed to do, and we came out on top."

BENJI MCDOWELL AFTER WASHINGTON'S FIRST WIN OF THE YEAR:

"I'm incredibly proud of the guys. We've fought through adversity this season, learned from it, improved every week and we made the plays we needed to today. I'm proud of the entire team."
