EMPIRE VS BRIGADE

MATCHUP PREVIEW

Riding a four-game win streak, the Albany Empire matchup against the first place Baltimore Brigade at home on Saturday, June 2 at 7:00 p.m. at the Times Union Center. The Empire will look to win their fifth consecutive game as they face a surging first place Baltimore team who leads Albany in the standings by one game. The game will be broadcast live on Facebook.com/AFLWatch and on Alt 105.7 fm.

The first matchup to look out for is between Baltimore quarterback Randy Hippeard and the Empire backfield. The Empire defense leads the league in nearly every defensive stat category while Hippeard leads a Brigade offense that tops the league in scoring. In the first meeting, Hippeard threw for seven touchdowns as Albany's backfield just could not stop the veteran quarterback. Hippeard currently leads the league in passing yards and pass attempts, so look for him to air it out and continue to take shots down the field. Hippeard spreads the ball around to all his targets, having four receivers on the team with at least 20 catches on the season.

The next matchup to look out for is between the Empire defensive line against the Brigade offensive line. Though Hippeard likes to get the ball out quickly, he is content to sit in the pocket and wait for a play to develop down field. In the Week 3 matchup in Baltimore, Albany recorded two sacks on Hippeard, but kept the quarterback under duress all game long. The Brigade offensive front has been a weakness all year long, surrendering 12 sacks already this season. Albany's defensive front leads the league in sacks with nine and expect to add a few more this weekend against Baltimore

The last matchup to look out for is between Tommy Grady and the Brigade defensive backfield. The Baltimore defensive front doesn't produce many sacks so that will leave Grady with plenty of time in the pocket to locate his targets. In the first matchup between the two teams, Grady torched the Brigade by throwing for 253 yards and six touchdowns. Look for much of the same as Grady takes his time to scan the field and find the open man. Expect the Empire to mix in a lot of plays deep down the field for big scoring plays. So far on the season, Grady tops the league in passing touchdowns with 34. Don't be surprised to see the Empire gunslinger pass the 40-touchdown mark once this game is all said and done with. Expect Grady to continue to feed the ball to his top targets; Joe Hills and Malachi Jones. On the season, the two receivers have combined for 23 receiving touchdowns and have been unstoppable as they are the top two wideouts in the league in the category. Despite losing the Week 3 matchup, Hills and Jones combined for a whopping 19 catches for 217 yards and five touchdowns on the night. Expect to hear "Grady to Hills" often in this matchup as the two connect in the end zone multiple times and increase Hills' active streak of consecutive games with a receiving touchdown to 87.

THE IFS:

If the Empire defeats the Brigade it would...

- * Extend the Empire win streak to five games
- * Put Albany in a tie for first place with Baltimore
- * Even the series up between Albany and Baltimore 1-1

BALTIMORE TIES

- * None of the current Empire coaches have coached in Baltimore.
- * Varmah Sonie is the only player on the Empire's 24-man roster to have played for the Brigade. In 2017, Sonie had 68 tackles, 20 pass breakups, four interceptions and a touchdown while playing in Baltimore.

OPPOSING PLAYERS TO WATCH

Look out for Brigade quarterback Randy Hippeard. Hippeard leads a Baltimore offense that tops the league in scoring. So far on the season, the reigning league MVP has completed 69.4 percent of his passes for a total of 1,438 yards; both league bests. Hippeard is currently second in the league in passing touchdowns with 28.

Hippeard likes to spread the ball around to all of his receivers. Watch out for his top target Brandon Thompkins. On the season, Thompkins leads the team in catches (35) and yards (349). Receiver Quentin Sims has found the end zone more than any Brigade receiver this season, finding pay dirt seven times.

THE SERIES

This will be the second meeting between the Empire and the Brigade.

Week 3: Albany 49 – Baltimore 52

WHAT'S AHEAD

After the home game against the Brigade, the Empire stay in Albany for a rematch against Baltimore. The game on Saturday, 6/9 will be at 7:30 p.m. Tune into CBS Sports Network or listen to Alt 105.7 for full coverage!

THE COACHES

ALBANY EMPIRE HEAD COACH ROB KEEFE

Keefe enters his ninth season as a coach in the AFL. At the age of 29 he became the youngest head coach in AFL history to win an Arena Football League Championship, when he led the Spokane Shock to an ArenaBowl victory in their first year in the AFL. He is the only person in Arena Football history to win an Arena Cup (AF2) and ArenaBowl (AFL) title as both a player and a coach.

As a player, Keefe was a defensive back. During his playing days, he set team records for the Spokane Shock as their all time leader in tackles and interceptions. Making the transition from AF2 to AFL, Keefe joined the Philadelphia Soul, where he won a championship in 2008.

Keefe's first season as a head coach, the Spokane Shock boasted the league's top-ranked defense, allowing a mere 37.6 points per game. The shock won an ArenaCup in that same season.

Coming into the 2018 season, Keefe posted a career 61-30 record as a head coach in the AFL (#1). Most recently, he led the Orlando Predators as head coach and vice president of football operations from 2014-2016. In his stint in Orlando, Rob won a division championship in each of his three years leading the team.

VS. THE BRIGADE

Coach Keefe is 0-1 against the Brigade as the Head Coach of the Albany Empire

COACHING RECORD

Coach Keefe's record as a head coach in the AFL:

2018 Regular Season: 4-2
Career Regular Season: 65-32
Career Playoff: 5-3
Career Total: 70-35

BALTIMORE BRIGADE HEAD COACH OMARR SMITH

Smith is one of the most successful players and coaches in AFL history, earning a combined seven AFL championships. Named to the Arena Football Hall of Fame for his storied playing career, Smith enters his second season as the Brigade's head coach. Baltimore qualified for the playoffs in the team's inaugural season, falling to the eventual-champion Philadelphia Soul in the semifinals.

Prior to joining the Brigade coaching staff, Smith spent one season (2016) as the head coach of the LA KISS, earning a home playoff appearance after finishing second in the National Conference. As an assistant coach, Smith won an ArenaBowl title with the Arizona Rattlers in 2012 and 2013 and with the San Jose SaberCats in 2015. Smith won Assistant Coach of the Year in 2013 with the Arizona Rattlers as the team's defensive coordinator. In 2012 and 2013, the Rattlers won consecutive ArenaBowl Championships with a defense ranked second in points allowed per game every season Smith led the defensive unit.

During his nine-year playing career, Smith won four ArenaBowl titles (2002, 2003, 2004, 2007) and finished his career with 35 interceptions, 88 pass break-ups and eight defensive touchdowns.

VS. THE EMPIRE

Coach Smith is 1-0 against the Empire as the Head Coach of the Baltimore Brigade

EMPIRE PLAYMAKERS

Tommy Grady

Tommy Grady was stellar as the Empire routed the Valor once again last weekend. Grady tossed for 237 yards and 6 touchdowns. On the season, Grady leads the AFL with 34 passing TDs

Joe Hills

Once again Joe Hills lived up to his nickname of "Superman." The leagues top touchdown receiver added another 99 yards and 3 touchdowns to his season totals on Saturday.

Malachi Jones

The rookie has been the second half of the Empire's one-two punch. Jones reeled in 6 catches for 78 yards and 2 TDs last weekend. He is second in the AFL with 487 yards

Arthur Hobbs

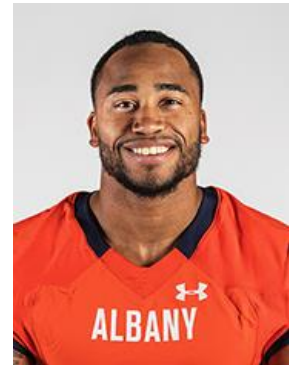

Arthur Hobbs was seemingly everywhere for the Empire last Saturday night. He tallied up 6 total tackles and forced an early interception.

Marrion Norman

Marrion Norman is currently second in the AFL with 36.5 total tackles. On Saturday, he added another 4.5 and contributed to a defense that only allows three Valor scores all night.

Terence Moore

Earning the award for defensive player of the week, Moore led the Empire defense with 8.5 total tackles, an interception and a touchdown.

EMPIRE LEADERS

WHAT'S AT STAKE: The Albany Empire look to continue their four-game win streak while having a shot at first place. Since a Week 3 loss to Baltimore, the Empire have turned it up as the team finds itself in a position to take the lead in the standings after a two-game home stretch against the Brigade.

THE GENERAL: QB Tommy Grady has been nothing short of perfect for the Empire during the team's winning streak. Against the Valor last week, Grady threw for 237 and six touchdowns while looking virtually unstoppable. Grady and the Empire offense can keep pace with any team in the league, so don't count this team out if they get down early!

HE MIGHT ACTUALLY BE SUPERMAN: WR Joe Hills has been a touchdown machine since joining the Empire. In five games, Hills leads the league in receiving touchdowns (13), is second in catches (39) and third in receiving yards (476). He currently holds the AFL record for most consecutive games with a touchdown reception with 86 – a streak that is still active. Simply put, no defensive back in the league can cover Joe Hills, so don't expect anything other than another dominating performance against the Brigade.

HE'S A ROOKIE??: WR Malachi Jones has been a revelation for the Empire in his Rookie campaign. Second in the league in receiving yards (487) and receiving touchdowns (10), he serves as another dominant weapon for Grady to find. On the season, he has 13 total touchdowns, tying him with teammate Joe Hills. Whether he is catching a deep ball down the field, or running the ball in from the goal line, you can expect Jones to be in the end zone at least once against Baltimore.

JACK IN THE BOX: JLB Terence Moore has been the center piece of an Empire defense that has begun to dominant opposing offenses. On the season, he is tied for the league lead with two interceptions, and second in the league in total tackles (36.5). A week ago against the Valor, he returned an interception to the house for a touchdown on his way to being named Defensive Player of the Week. Moore is the signal caller for this defense and seems to be wherever the ball is on the field. The Empire defense dominates in the third quarter, boasting a +54 point difference over opponents, surrendering a mere 28 total points in the quarter all year. Looking for Moore on the field? Just watch where the play ends and you'll see #8 around the pile.

2018 GAME SUMMARIES

Empire Win Fourth Straight

5/26/2018

The Albany Empire (4-2) defeated the Washington Valor (0-6) 48-21 Saturday night at the Times Union Center in Albany, NY in front of a crowd of 7,847. Empire quarterback Tommy Grady threw for 237 yards and six touchdowns earning himself the game MVP award. Empire receiver Joe Hills had five receptions for 99 yards and three receiving touchdowns on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. The game marked the 86th consecutive game for Hills with a receiving touchdown; an active league record. Empire's jack linebacker Terence Moore was named Defensive Player of the Game with 8.5 total tackles and an interception return for a touchdown.

Washington received the game's opening kickoff and began their initial drive on their own five-yard line. After beginning with an incomplete pass, quarterback Shane Austin found receiver Reggie Gray for a quick five-yard pick up. The very next snap, Austin found Chris Duvall over the center of the field to push to ball closer to midfield. Two plays later, Austin was intercepted by Arthur Hobbs in the end zone to set the Empire up on their own five-yard line. The Empire opened the drive with a pass to rookie standout receiver Malachi Joes for an early first down. The next play, Grady connected with his top target Joe Hills for a long 30-yard touchdown to put Albany on top 7-0 midway through the first quarter.

The ensuing kickoff hit off the field goal post and was recovered by Jordan Williams, giving the ball back to the Empire on the opposing six-yard line. The first play of the new drive, fullback Wes Mauia couldn't haul in a pitch from Grady, fumbling the ball back to the Valor. Washington methodically worked the ball down the field and eventually capped their drive with an eight-yard touchdown to TT Toliver as he flipped over the back wall.

After a nice return by Jordan Williams, the Empire were set up on the 12-yard line. One play later, Grady found Jones deep in the end zone, but the play was erased by a penalty. Albany would bounce back as Grady hit Hills over the middle for an Empire first down as the first quarter came to a close. To open the second quarter, Grady connected with receiver Collin Taylor for a first down as Albany crossed midfield. One play later, Grady found Hills for a 17-yard Empire touchdown. After the Valor received the next kickoff, Jack Linebacker Terence Moore intercepted the first pass from Austin and returned the ball into the end zone to extend the Empire lead to two scores.

Starting from their own three-yard line, Austin found Reggie Gray for a quick 10-yard pick up. The ensuing play, Washington moved the ball through the air across midfield. After the play, Valor offensive lineman Will Corbin was ejected for a personal foul. After working the ball into the red zone, the Empire were able to stop Austin's scramble attempt from a yard out to force a turnover on downs. Albany would gain some space as Grady found Hills across the middle to quickly move the ball to midfield. After a couple of short completions to Taylor, Grady was able to hit Malachi Jones in the end zone from seven-yards out.

Wasting no time, the Valor returned the following kickoff all the way down field to the opposing seven-yard line setting them up with only 23 seconds remaining in the first half. Three plays later, Austin hooked up with receiver Josh Reese for a short score leaving only five seconds on the clock before halftime. On the final kickoff of the half, Valor receiver Jared Dangerfield was ejected for a personal foul. The Empire ran down the remaining seconds to end the first half with a 28-14 lead.

Empire quarterback Mike Fafaul entered the game for Grady late in the fourth quarter. After a Valor defensive penalty, the Empire were quickly over midfield and threatening again. Following the one-minute warning, Fafaul found Taylor as the Empire moved the ball inside of the Valor 15-yard line. The game was all but over as Fafaul took a knee and let the clock run out as the Empire won 48-21.

Empire Snap Soul's 20-Game Home Win Streak

5/19/2018

The Albany Empire (3-2) defeated the Philadelphia Soul (3-2) 41-36 Saturday night at the Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia, PA in front of a crowd of 9,715. The big win for the Empire broke the Soul's active streak of 20 consecutive wins at home. Empire quarterback Tommy Grady threw for 178 yards and five touchdowns earning himself the game MVP award. Empire receiver Malachi Jones had seven receptions for 63 yards and two receiving touchdowns, while chipping one rushing touchdown and earning himself Offensive Player of the Game for the second straight week. Soul's James Romain was named Defensive Player of the Game with eight total tackles and an interception.

The Soul received the initial kick and began their drive at their own five-yard line by opening with a 16-yard connection from Raudabaugh to Reynolds. Two plays later, the Soul found the end zone on a 27-yard hookup to Darius Prince to jump out to an early 7-0 lead.

Albany began their ensuing possession on their own five-yard line after a touchback on the kickoff. After a short completion to Joe Hills, the Empire were helped by a pass interference on fourth down to extend the drive. The drive was stalled by an interception by defensive back James Romaine on a pass intended for Hills in the end zone. Three plays into the Soul drive, Raudabaugh was hit hard by a swarm of Empire defensive linemen and was temporarily knocked out of the game, leaving backup quarterback Greg McGhee to handle the next play. After giving up a sack to Empire lineman Nick Seither, Raudabaugh returned to the game. The Soul failed to convert on fourth down, turning the ball back over to Albany. At the end of the first quarter, Philadelphia led the defensive battle 7-0.

With the first play of the second quarter, the Empire were setback by an intentional grounding penalty on third down and were unable to convert on a long fourth down to give the ball back over to the Soul. Philadelphia worked quickly as they crossed into Empire territory in just two plays. Unable to convert another first down, the Soul attempted a long 46 field goal. The field goal was no good and returned by Empire receiver Collin Taylor to the five-yard line, but thanks to a Soul penalty, the Empire began their drive from the 15-yard line. Two plays later, Grady connected with Malachi Jones for a 30-yard touchdown to tie the game at 7-7.

Albany wasted no time after another Soul score as Grady connected with Jones for his second touchdown reception of the half to give the Empire a 14-13 lead. The Empire then failed to recover an onside kick of their own, setting up the Soul on the Albany 12-yard line. The Soul would take advantage of the short field by taking back the lead on a 27-yard field goal. With little time on the clock, the Empire couldn't find a way to score, with the first half ending 16-14 in favor of the Soul.

Albany would begin their second possession of the second half on their own 20-yard line after the Soul kickoff went out of bounds outside of the nets. Two plays later, Grady connected with Jordan Williams for a 25-yard touchdown; the first touchdown reception of Williams' young AFL career. The first play of the Soul's next possession ended with a fumble by fullback Adrian Ferns, giving the ball back to the Empire inside of the Soul 5-yard line. Defensive end Joe Sykes forced the fumble giving him a league leading four forced fumbles on the season. The Empire capitalized on the Soul turnover with a one-yard touchdown run by Malachi Jones to further the Albany lead. At the end of the third quarter, the Empire led 35-23.

To end the game, the Empire took over on the opposing six-yard line after a failed onside kick by the Soul with just under two minutes to go in the game. The Empire were unable to capitalize on the short field, giving the ball back to the Soul who then drove down field and capped with an eight-yard touchdown to Darius Prince to close the Empire gap to 41-36 with 33 seconds remaining. The Empire recovered the Soul onside kick attempt and were able to kneel the ball to run the remaining seconds on the clock and come away with a victory.

The Albany Empire (2-2) defeated the Washington Valor (0-4) 53-42, Friday night at the Capital One Arena in Washington, D.C. in front of a crowd of 9,036. Empire quarterback Tommy Grady threw for 257 yards and seven touchdowns earning himself the game MVP award. Empire receiver Malachi Jones had six receptions for 120 yards and three receiving touchdowns, while chipping one rushing touchdown and earning himself Offensive Player of the Game. Terence Moore was named Defensive Player of the Game with six total tackles and a fumble recovery.

The Empire received the opening kick and began their drive just inside the 10-yard line. With the first play of the game, Grady found Malachi Jones for a 41-yard bomb and a touchdown giving the Empire an early 6-0 lead. The Valor's Chris Duvalt returned the ensuing kickoff to nearly midfield, giving the Valor excellent field position for their first drive in their home opener. Three plays later, Valor quarterback Warren Smith connected with wide receiver TT Toliver for the score.

Grady found Jones for a quick first down to open the team's second drive of the game. After a few Valor penalties and a couple of hookups between Grady and his top target Joe Hills, the Empire were able to cap the long drive off with three-yard touchdown to a wide-open Greg Carr.

The Empire attempted to surprise the Valor with an onside kick, however the try was unsuccessful, giving the Valor the ball on the Albany nine-yard line. The Valor were able to capitalize on the short field position with another touchdown to Toliver to end the first quarter with the lead, 14-12.

In response, the Empire opened the second quarter with a quick-hitter to Joe Hills that moved the ball to midfield. The very next play, Grady connected with Jones for a 19-yard touchdown; Jones' second of the game. The Valor were able to keep the back and forth pace up with the Empire as they marched down the field and ended with a 21-yard touchdown to Duvalt.

After a nice kickoff return by Jordan Williams, the Empire were set up on their own 15-yard line. Two plays later, Grady found a wide-open Collin Taylor in the end zone from 19 yards out, giving the lead back to Albany, 26-21. The Empire once again attempted an onside kick but failed to recover, setting up the Valor on the Albany 5-yard line. The very next play, the Valor scored on a 5-yard touchdown run by Warren Smith.

With under two minutes to go the Empire went to work inside of their own five-yard line. Two plays later, Grady found Hills for a long completion as Hills smartly stayed out of the end zone to keep the clock running. The Empire capped the drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown by Malachi Jones: his third touchdown of the half. At the end of the first half, the Empire led 32-28.

The Valor began the second half with the ball and were able to methodically work down field, but the drive stalled inside of the Empire 5-yard line and turned the ball over on downs. With 45 yards of turf ahead of them the Empire picked up where they left off by finding Malachi Jones for a completion over the middle. The next play, Grady connected with Jones for a short pass, but Jones was able to make some elusive moves and make his way into the end zone for his fourth total score of the night.

The next Valor possession began with a quick pass, but a Valor penalty brought the offense back inside of their own 10-yard line. Washington worked the ball with ease and ended the drive with a five-yard touchdown pass to receiver Josh Reese. The Valor attempted to get the ball back with an onside kick, but failed, giving the ball to the Empire on the short side of the field. The Empire took a knee and watched the clock wind down on their way to a 53-42 victory.

With the score, Joe Hills extended his record of consecutive games with a touchdown reception to 83.

To answer, the Washington Valor methodically drove the ball down the field. On fourth down in the red zone, Valor quarterback Warren Smith found Washington's top target Rod Windsor for the score. On the ensuing possession, Grady found Collin Taylor for a long catch-and-run hookup, but after being tackled from behind, Taylor fumbled the ball into the end zone for a Valor touchback. After the quarter break, the Valor were unable to capitalize and turned the ball over on downs thanks to a sack by defensive end, Joe Sykes.

After a penalty on Washington and a few short completions, Grady was able to find rookie receiver Malachi Jones on a short pass that he broke for a 14-yard touchdown. That touchdown marked the third touchdown in as many games for the rookie.

Starting on their own 1-yard line on the following possession, the Valor were helped by a series of Empire penalties that slowly moved the ball down the field. Washington was able to capitalize on the penalties and cap the drive off with an 8-yard touchdown to Windsor, his second of the game. The extra point attempt was blocked but recovered by the Valor for a two-point conversion, giving them the lead 15-14.

After Valor kickoff went out of bounds, the Empire received the ball with great starting field position at the 20-yard line. Albany easily worked the ball down the field finishing the drive with a four-yard fade to Hills for his second touchdown reception of the game.

The Empire surprised Washington with an onside kick that was recovered by Malachi Jones, giving Albany the ball with a minute remaining in the first half. The offense milked some clock while at the same time making their way down field thanks to two catches by Hills and a Valor penalty. The Empire controlled the ball down to the one-yard line as time was about to expire before Malachi Jones capped the drive off with a short touchdown run giving the Empire the lead 28-15 at the half.

The first play of the second half, Valor quarterback Warren Smith was intercepted by Marrio Norman, who ran it back for a touchdown. The Valor's next possession ended with another turnover on a strip sack by Willie McGinnis, giving the ball back to the Empire on the short side of midfield. In response, The Empire came out firing as Grady connected with Malachi Jones for a first down on the team's opening play. After missing on a bomb to Joe Hills, Grady completed another medium gain to Collin Taylor for first down. The drive ended with a 6-yard touchdown hookup to Joe Hills, his first touchdown reception of the game. This touchdown extended Joe Hills' active streak and league record of consecutive games with a touchdown reception to 82 games.

After a long catch-and-run by Malachi Jones and a couple of penalties by the Brigade, the Empire scored with a 5-yard touchdown to Collin Taylor; his second in as many games.

The Empire began the second half with the ball and methodically worked down the field. The drive was capped off with a 1-yard touchdown run by Collin Taylor; the first rushing touchdown of the Empire's young franchise. The Brigade answered by marching down the field to take back the lead with another touchdown pass to Brown.

The Empire took over and ran a quick-hitter to Malachi Jones who turned it into a 42-yard catch-and-run from deep in Empire territory for a touchdown; his second consecutive game with a 40+ touchdown catch.

Heading into the fourth quarter, the Brigade controlled the ball and opened the quarter with a long touchdown pass to Williams; Hippeard's sixth touchdown toss of the game. The Empire then took over on the Baltimore eight-yard line after a Brigade failed onside kick. Shortly after, the snap was mishandled by Grady and recovered by Baltimore as the Brigade took over with 52 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Brigade were able to milk to remaining seconds on the clock and come away with a close game victory.
